PRESIDENT COLUMN:

We trust that you have enjoyed the festive season and holiday spirit which prevailed during the past couple of months. For most it is back to work - for mothers the relief of getting the kids back to school.

With the kids on holidays we hope that the Dads have helped mum by taking the kids fishing. I can quote a good example of this and am very pleased to see the spirit of our club carry over into the junior and mini junior ranks.

The A.A.A. had their Mandurah 500 Fishing Competition in the mid January weekend. Conditions were perfect (maybe a little hot at mid-day but on the beach was the ideal place to be). The Osborne family as usual participating in the event. Recognition of a few faces of the fishing fraternity as one travelled along the beach, but was pleased to see a few surfcasters along. In fact when various surfcasters spotted our ace team Tony and Filamena D'Alonzo they just had to move in alongside.

Coming back to the point I was making, some of the surfcasters brought along their families. Was great to see mini-mini-juniors out punching a mullet or whitebait into the surf. Not many big fish about but plenty of small ones. The kids had a ball. I'm referring to the Richardsons and Reeleys. Dad was busy organising not just the kids but wife as well. A very pleasant evening and morning for a family fishing. Young Gary Richardson came close to picking up a prize for the biggest whiting. Differences were measured in millimetres and grams. Bad luck Gary, the Whiting you caught was a good one for this area. Would you believe Tony D. acquired a new spinning reel. His Herring just had to be the biggest for the day. Even made his Tailor look small.

Must congratulate the A.A.A. on a well run competition. Over 500 People participated. By using a limited bag (three fish only) and allowing competitors to weigh in only if they felt their bag or their species capture was heavier than them up on the board, the weigh-in was very efficient. This also had a good conservation point. No large kills for the sake of bag weight. I trust the A.A.A. looks at this for future formats for any fishing competitions. The overall winner was well deserved. In very flat seas (Easterly winds) he managed to connect with a 14kilo julloway.

Looking to back over the past few years anytime Surfcasters have participated in fishing competitions we have been successful somewhere along the line. Sometimes a senior, sometimes a lady and even some of our mini's have come away with prizes. Surfcasters can be proud that their club members can more than hold their own in any competition. I'm sure most of you are aware that in Drycasting over the past year success has been fantastic. Good on you Surfcasters.

I'll finish on a note that I'm going to put to you in more detail over the next few months. In mid '83 the Australian Fishing Championships are being held in Ballina N.S.W. Surfcasters are making a significant contribution to team members for the N.A. team. As a club we should get right behind our people. Lets explore any ideas that can help them be more successful. I end on this note. if you have any ideas please let us know. I will also ask that if we require assistance one way or another that YOU step forward and help your club members.

P.T. OSBORNE

"I'VE HAD ENOUGH"

Have you ever said to yourself after coming home from an all night stand, soaked to the skin and frozen stiff from the Fremantle Doctor, cut, grazed and bruised from falling down a small drop 12ft due to having too much of the old jungle juice and the worst is still to come.

You've gone and dropped your highly sophisticated Super high technically advanced ten to one ratio, low torque, auto forward and fast rewind with it's super drag system into the ocean, to top it off your super strength 12 wrap rod with fugi runners has had it's tip broken off.

That's not all your green garbage bin thats used to store monstrous big catches of yellowtail, tuna, or is it yellowfin whiting, or how about good catches of tailor, anyway its empty apart from the 1/2 a block of decomposed mullies.

Then after twenty or thirty kilometres drive home in which you drove through several red lights, changed a flat tyre, your evening has been expensive.

By this time its ten in the morning and you havn't been asleep for 36 hours and your exhausted. So you contemplate grabbing a hot shower-my god the hot water unit is not working the element had it, and you've forgotten to buy soap the truth is you can't afford soap due to the fact your for ever replacing fishing gear.

So after 22.78 seconds under the cold shower you dive into the bed that hasn't been made for months and your out like a light. You must have been asleep for 7-10 minutes, dreaming of the big fish you might have caught when the door bell rings, rings and rings. Yes its Aunty from Tinbucktoo who you haven't seen for seven years or more.

"Hello darling, my how you've grown do you eat regular meals?"
"Whats happened to that nice Italian girlfriend of yours?" Her father shot me in the butt I exclaimed as I hurried them back out the back door. So I can get that well deserved sleep. After a week or two I'm almost back to normal, recovered anyway.

So I think all you fishing foe get the general idea. I've taken up golf till I can afford to start all over again.

EDITORIAL:

After a rather cool Christmas and an even cooler New Year, which was a nice change, it was noticeable that many members must have taken the opportunity while the cooler weather was about to go on holidays for it showed in the attendance at the General Meeting. The meeting was once again chaired by our Pressy Peter, who welcomed all members and visitors and wished them one and all a Happy New Year. New members were awarded with their club badges, they being the Colins family, Bruce, Lorraine, Debra, Russell and Narelle. We all wish you a happy stay. I overheard a whisper in the background during their presentation, "its about time the Osborne's had some competition.

Eric Parker gave a short report on a recent fishing trip in the Shark Bay area. The group caught Golden Trevally up to 15kg, Spanish - Shark and Frigate Mackerel up to 10kg, Giant Herring up to 3.5kg, Bonito and Sharks.

NOTE: Fishing Hint :- Always remove the plastic cover from the hook of the gaff before proceeding to gaff any fish.

Apparently someone in the group had some trouble gaffing a Shark with the cover on. I'm not saying WHO :

Bert Payne once again entertained the meeting with a story from a fishing trip to Monkey Mia. Apparently for the past 18 months or so, there lurked beneath the jetty a large Groper which was nicknamed "Johnny the Groper", and was almost uncatchable. While sitting, fishing at the jetties end, Bert noticed an old man, wearing an old army coat, which could have stood on its own in any corner, stumbling his way towards him. From the stench which he have of, Bert became aware that he was under the influence. Apparently he had been drinking wine, and as he drew Bert into conversation, Bert laughed to himself because not only was he drunk but he was also "IRISH" to boot.

As the gent got closer to the jetties edge Bert informed him that he may fall in should he get much closer.

"She'll be okkk". was his reply. "By the way is it ok if I fish next to you?"

"Yes", said Bert reluctantly.

From out of his pocket the drunken Irishman produced an old handline and asked if he could have a bait. After Bert assisted him bait-up, he threw out his bait and settled down to enjoy himself and give Bert an Ear bashing!!! All of a sudden the old man (Not Bert) began struggling with something heavy on his line.

"I think I've caught Johnny the Groper"!

After almost being pulled into the water the old man asked Bert if he could lend a hand.

Now Bert being a smart old fisherman saw the trouble he was having with the line cutting into his hands, he decided to protect his hands by wrapping a towel around them.

EDITORIAL: Cont.....

With both of them pulling, they eventually, after an hours fighting, they managed to bring it to the gaff. Before it surfaced Bert thought to himself "Surely this must be a state or even an Australian Record". Their efforts were rewarded for as it surfaced they saw they had caught a huge tractor tyre.

"BEAT THAT ONE",

Thanks Bert, it was a good story.

With the meeting business completed a film was shown on Harlin Fishing in Eastern States waters. The power of such fish as they try to throw the hooks has to be seen to be believed, as they tail walked and leaped from the waters surface.

I congratulate those fisherman who after fighting these majestic fish, in some cases up to 2 hours, released them after tagging.

Thanks go to Peter Osborne for acquiring the film and to Dick Stevens for its showing.

LATE CONGRATULATIONS:

Congratulation go to both Leigh and Nell Clifton on their marriage back in September 1982. "Sorry its so late".

JANUARY 1983 DRYCASTING:

Judging by the small attendance on Sunday it seemed the New Year started with an extended hangover or Holidays. (Wasn't feeling too good myself).

With a fairly stiff easterly, accuracy and distance were hard to achieve. That man Brian Leicester was at it again taking off the 112grams with 28pts and the D/H Accuracy with 59pts. At the risk of repeating myself ...well done Brian.

Single Hand Accuracy went to George Holman with 34pts. That matches the clubs record this year with Brian Leicester.

Senior winners of the day were both Brian and George with 147 points.

Handicap winner was Robert Francis with 152pts. Good casting from one of our newer members. Keep it up Robert.

A STUDY OF A SURF CASTER.

There is more comedy than seriousness in the study of the surf caster.

Let me give you an instance. Last December we have ourselves a treat and wandered along the beach at Moore River. The small school Kingies were running about 2 to 3 pounds each. This is a wonderful beach to study the surf caster. At Christmas time you can see the giants at work with their 12ft and 14ft and the occasional 22ft rods. An assortment of reels were being employed in hurling hooks, tracers, rigs and sinkers as near to INDIA and SOUTH AFRICA as possible. Each champion caster had his little group of admirers, each caster trying to out do each other in the distance they could cast. Small tales were whispered by the knowing as to the superiority of the best, the Egg Beater and Alvey against the highly geared reels and the different methods of casting and why so and so was only attaining so many hundred yards. Jim Ramsbottom was chucking his gear out of sight, surf caster v's surf caster is a sight to be seen. Go to the next Sunday Times Fishing Competition and see 1500 rods and lines being belted out to sea. While the admirers admired their admirables nobody notice a youngster further down the beach who, though he tried like mad, never seemed to be able to get his line out as far as we could throw a stone underarm. But strangely he was filing up the fish on the beach behind him for everyone to see. (Funny is in it).

If almost seems a pity that he would, when he was finally able to afford a fancy 12ft rod and reel, eventually join up with the fancy. He, in all probability, too after a few Dry Casting lessons from the experts, like George Holman, Brian Leicester and Laurie, will become one of the surf casters and learn the Cardinal Rule, (Its the technique that counts not the fish you catch).

I love surf casting and it is one of the blessing of my life. I will be 84 years old this year and still go fishing. I put it down to what you get from fishing, recreation and relaxation, and more important it is a good hobby that needn't cost much to buy the outfit, as most other hobbies tend to do these days. It also has the very attractive point that even the greenest trier might even catch a big one, while that gent in the fancy hat and expensive gear looks on in envy. All that and a lung full of fresh air.

All that is required to pursue this sport is a piece of SEA and hook, something to bait it and some sort of line to throw it out to the fish and BING you are in BUSINESS. Who could ask for more. Join the happy band and belong to the Surf Casting and Angling Club.

Yours truly

PAITHER.
