DECEMBER GENERAL MEETING:

The December meeting was notable mainly by its briefness. With all the activity in the kitchen humming in the background urging the boys on, the meeting progressed very swiftly.

President George noted with regret the resignation of our Treasurer, Allan Hair. Pressure of work had not allowed Allan to give the job the time he felt he ought to.

George accepted the resignation with regret and thanked Allan for stepping into the job at a time when we had no nominations for the position. At least Allan- "had a go" and we all appreciate the effort made.

It was announced that Dennis Green had volunteered to take over the job for the rest of the year. George thanked Dennis for taking on the office of Treasurer again, and spoke for all of us when he said the accounts of the club would be in good hands.

Change of Field Day: Due to heavy advance bookings by the Surf Carnival at Denmark on our proposed long weekend, Feb/March 28/29th/1st. The Committee recommended that weekend be changed to Kalbarri/dago.

Also that April be changed from Flinders to Denmark.

The motion was carried.

Nominations received for new members.

The Secretary,
Surf Casting and Angling Assoc. of W.A.

Dear Sir,

It has been drawn to my attention by a Life Member of the club that you are in receipt of a letter from Mr. George Hampton which makes reference to the fact that I have taken umbridge to an article in "Reel Talk" which refers to an outing in my boat at Jurien Bay with my old and very dear friend Bert Paine.

A copy of the letter is not available to me and news of its existence came as a surprise to me so you can see I am not in a position to draw conclusion or remark on its contents. I can only presume from the grief it has caused Bert that the letter contains some mischief.

My purpose in writing to you is to endeavour to undo any damage which may have been done by assuring you that I felt the article by Bert was comical, had some semblence of truth (very little) but being a "useless bloody old pensioner" with no commonsense with regards to the wiles of the sea I can understand that what he wrote is how he must have felt. You can imagine how I felt being out to sea with a "useless old goat" like him.

From this letter you can see that Bert is a very dear friend of mine and I feel deeply sorry if the letter has caused him any worry. Bert has given long and valuable service to the Surf Casting Assoc., in particular and fishing in general and while I am the first to admit "Panther" has no idea of "weights or measurements", he is a great bloke.

Being Secretary, you will no doubt know how to handle this situation and you will look at the letter now in its proper perspective. All I ask is that if the letter has been placed before a General Meeting that you give this one equal time to make sure Bert's character is not assassinated.

I remain,

Yours faithfully,

Phillip Oldfield.

DECEMBER FIELD DAY:

Most of the members arrived at the Lancelin Inn just after opening time. As usual we took over most of the bar space, pool table and chairs with one of the members bringing in his wireless and turning it on full bore to listen to the cricket. I think when we left the Publican was glad to see the back of us.

At the sign on, four wheel drive members were busy letting their tyres down to make it easy going along the beach. Thirty eight members, including juniors, signed on at the start of the field day.

F.D.O. set off for Wedge, following the track over the sand dunes to Sappers Road. Here we turned left towards the beach which brought us out at Skippy Point, which is about 1 mile from Lancelin. We saw where the rest of the 4-wheel drive vehicles had been through so proceeded towards Wedge. About 1½ miles further up we came across a bad section of beach- it was fairly flat, then rose to a steep bank. It appeared some members had a fair amount of trouble there, and later we found that two Landrovers had been bogged. After passing that section it was like a Sunday drive the rest of the way.

We arrived at Flat Rock where "Killer" and Bill Morrow were, and set up camp. Bill, being a gentleman, was busy mashing up burly with his feet, then after putting it in bags, swam it out about 50 yards with offers coming from the old fella sitting in the shade of the tent wetting his lips with the amber fluid.

After dark, with not many fish in our bags, we set about drowning our sorrows. Then Ron found out he forgot his bottle of fermented grape juice- needless to say, he moaned about it being Bill's job to remind him. At about 10.00 p.m., Jim Strong, who was fishing with Bill Utting 200 yards away, strolled into the tent with his bottle of Red-Ned and Ron's eyes really lit up. Jim being a very sociable member, asked Ron if he would like a sip and from then on Ron took charge of the bottle. Jim did have a sip finally, but I don't think he will come calling again with a bottle when Ron's around.

Sunday: with the tide being out, it made it a fairly easy drive back to the weigh-in.

P. Isbister weighed 5.15kg tailor which was the heaviest bag. J. Lee ended up with a Mulloway weighing 1.3kg and not only took off the heaviest fish, but was worth $2 in a private sweep.

While waiting for the rest of the members to come back to the weigh-in, F.D.O. asked George Holman to drive back along the track to the Sandhill to see if the conventional vehicles were waiting at the bottom of the hill. This was so we could pull them over to save them going all the way around the rough track, which suggestion was given by F.D.O. at the sign-on. However, George had a thankless drive.

As F.D.O., I would like to say it is very disheartening to have members come back to the weigh-in and not weigh in their fish, and to sign-on, catch fish, and then not come back for the weigh-in.

It is your Club, so if you attend a field day, please participate.

One member who tried to make it to the weigh-in. Neville Risbey, blew out a tyre and buckled a rim, but he arrived on time to catch F.D.O. at shop. Neville took 3 juniors with him and they all caught fish but Neville. David Risbey had the heaviest junior bag of tailor, 3.0kg.

I hope we have a better catch of fish at Greenough in January.

SOCIAL NEWS:CHRISTMAS SOCIAL & B.B.Q.

The Social Committee gathered at Darryll's to set up all equipment in preparation of our Christmas Social, and what a success it was. The coloured lights had just been placed in position when in walks Tony Richardson with signs, he had produced, tucked under his arm. I must mention herethat one of these signs was placed above the door of the mens toilet, the sign read "DANGLERS". Throughout the following afternoon, Tom Corcoran's sons were overheard warning other children not to enter as they read the sign to read "DANGER" and were spreading rumours that there were spiders inside, thanks Tony for the good work on the signs.

Further setting up had been halted, as Alan Hair had not arrived, with mowers, to cut the lawns. While sitting and waiting, a certain bearded gentleman (KIL-LEK-DAHL) suggested that a few ambers wouldn't go astray, the hosts arm did not require twisting and was back in a flash with two aristotles and proceeded to open same when in walked Alan. Now Alan being a sociable type, sat down and joined in, telling us he needed a drink to gather enough courage to tackle the job in hand. "THEN IT HAPPENED".

Allan's son, Glenn, appeared with girlfriend Di hanging from one of his arms. Alan, of course, asked the $100,000 dollar question, "What are you doing over here"? Glenn replied, with a slight gritting of the teeth, "I've come over to help you mow the lawns"! Now, everyone knows, when a twenty-year old son, drives from City Beach to Nollamara to help his father, he is either mentally disturbed or requires Dad's help or money. It was found that help was needed.

The party broke up when Darryl stated that he had run out of coldies, most of the workers went about their business, excepting one, who remained behind to keep the girls company namely Maria and Di. Guess who? Yes, the same person who suggested the drinks.

After the setting-up was complete, some of the workers went for a swim. Alan was seen swimming in his customary swimsuit (underpants) and believe me girls not a pretty sight. Assured all was in readiness for 4.30 start, we returned home for lunch and showers.

4.30 found the first of the members and their families arriving and soon the pool area was full of people. Because of the late arrival of some of the members, Father Christmas scheduled time of arrival had to be delayed, and for this we apologise, for it was noticed that some of the children were becoming restless. When Father Christmas did appear some of the children stood in shock and were unable to move; the look which overcame their faces was beautiful and I hope their parents captured these expressions on film. Father Christmas talked and handed each child their presents and lollies. Up to this point most of the male population looked upon the job of Father Christmas as a chore until all the members wives or lady friends were to sit upon Father Christmas knee and receive a beautifully covered coat hanger, made and donated by Lois Kildahl, of course all ladies gave Father Christmas a big fat juicy kiss, and quite a few of the male members offered to help, but Father Christmas soon put them in their place.

SOCIAL NEWS CONT'D:

After the excitement of opening their presents the children took to the pool and had a wonderful time. By 7 o'clock the BBQ plates were ready and members proceeded to cook their chosen meats. With all that meat sitting on the hot plates, reminded me of Graham Baskerville on a field day. More members continued to arrive, and its good to see some new faces at our social functions. Approximately 94 people attended, made up from toddlers to grandfathers, of which 27 were members.

Suddenly the voices of the multitude rang out, "THE "B" KEGS DRY"; with great speed and efficiency another keg was purchased, and cries of jubilation was heard from the mob.

With sufficient amount of alcohol under their belts the braver of the members decided on a swim. I say braver, as the chill of the evening was upon us. Once in the pool a ball appeared and the fun was on, if the energy which was used throughout the ball game could have been bottled, I could live to be 150 years old. The ball moving about the pool in quick bursts gave the appearance that a game of some sort was being played, but who played against who the onlookers will never know.

Prior to this event taking place, Chris Green was seen shivering and cringing in fear away from the main party area, and refused to return until sometime had elapsed. Apparently while attempting to wriggle free from Lofty's clutches as he attempted to place her into a garbage can, Chris gave Lofty a gentle shove and Lofty found himself, standing knee-deep, fully clothed in the swimming pool. It was quite a sight watching Lofty take off each shoe and pour the water back into the pool.

Most members had left by about 11-11.30 with the memories of a good time. The door prize was won by Tony Richardson and guess who drew the lucky number, Jacky his wife, something fishy eh!

The Christmas Cake raffle was won by the old timer Phil Heri, who incidently borrowed the 20 cents to buy the ticket. May Griffiths donated the prize, and for this the club says a very big thank you, May.

The second raffle, a tin of ham and a bottle of wine, was won by Len Singleton. Congrats Len. Finally I would like to thank my Committee for their help, Tony Richardson for the great signs, Lois Kildahl for those lovely covered coat hangers, May Griffiths and all those who helped and attended to make this day a success, and an extra special thanks to the Hosts.

DECEMBER CAST:

Casters were greeted on the day to the start of a very warm day. After a short time it really warmed up.

Casters started arriving down at the Oval and some looked very poorly from the social functions held on the Friday night by Brian Leicester.

Again this month we put all the casters through together and everyone seemed to like the idea considering the weather.

As usual the Court Jester was in prime form. Again he was defeated points wise by his junior offsider (R. Ingram).

The Oriental Squatter was in action with some of his new found followers.

The eventual winner for the day was T. Fuller with 110 points. No-one knew who the winner was until the General Meeting night and everyone applauded Terry for such a good score for the day. Junior winner was R. Ingram with 76 points.

The winner for the L/L Distance was B. Leicester with 39 points. Terry Fuller took out the D/H Accuracy with 49 points and G. Holman snatched the Single Handed event with 25 points.

Thanks must go to the markers who did a fine job as usual. Don't forget if no-one volunteers to go and mark it's not very easy to run a cast.

Eric and John.
