All members should know that a General Meeting at which the Election of Officers' takes place is a very important one, so please make this evening a must on your calendar and after the elections, you can have a chin-wag over a small glass of ale.

LAST COMMITTEE MEETING.

Was held in the R.S.L. Hall, Claremont, and did not conclude until 10.30 p.m. Any two members are invited to attend any Committee Meeting, as long as prior notice is given.

Ask your mates whether they would like to go on committee, or maybe you yourself would - its an interesting job as well as doing bit for your club. Every vacancy will have to be filled, for we don't wish to overburden the willingness of present Committeemen. If you would like to come on Committee, we guarantee you a job - you will not just be a name.

TROPHY DONORS.

Many thanks to all Club Members and supporters who donated trophies for our recent competitions. These Trophies were most attractively displayed at our Presentation night with the able assistance of Henry Bester - many thanks Henry.

DRYCASTING NEWS - JUNE 1967.

Our June Drycasting morning brought 26 ardent members to the Moreat Oval. Conditions were so bad that each member had either waders or their 'wet' clothes on, and at each retrieve the chaps were expecting someone to sing out 'Gaff'. Rain was pouring down continuously all morning, and a flock of seagulls were seen hovering overhead. One onlooker from the bowling green put his order in for a dozen herring! Many thanks to Jack Harvey for bringing along his tent and making the events more comfortable. We have never seen so many in one tent before.

Very pleasing to see Denis Bodle along to drycasting, hope to see more of you Denis, and also Noel Wilkerson who is an old member, welcome back Noel.

In the L.L. Distance the longest cast was made by Ken Jones with a nice cast of 366 ft., but the event was won by Hew Hoy Yew.

The D.H. Accuracy, Noel Knight showed us the way again with 63/80, T. Smith with 46/80 was second, and G. Holman third with 33/80.

S.H. Accuracy - first place goes to Hew Hoy Yew with 34/40, with W. Bridger second 30/40, and R. Kildahl third with 28/40. It was good to see Hew score two bulls in this event - it would have been nice to see him make it a hat trick.

The overall winner for the day was Hew Hoy Yew with 121 points. I thought the weather was against us, scoring for the day was exceptionally good. Time prevented us from holding the Open L.L. Distance, and this will be included at a future date.

Our thanks to Doug Savage for showing us quite a few pointers in handling heavy fishing gear - the boys appreciated this Doug, and we hope to have a repeat on another day.

TIM'S THICKET VENUE, JUNE 1967.

It can only be said that this field-day was remarkable in many ways, best forgotten.

Fifty-eight stalwarts reported for duty, and let no one complain about the weatar, because we need all the complaints to describe the almost non-existence of fish of any shape, size, or species.

Members headed North and South, and about the only place that wasn't fished was the sand dunes at the back of the camping area; and of course, this was where all the fish were! They certainly weren't in that brown looking, reef filled liquid we call the Indian Ocean.

As if in defiance, members were seen to be imbibing for prolonged periods, in a brown looking liquid which was only one shade darker than the water they'd been trying to coax fish from.

By 9.30 p.m. only the most optimistic anglers were still at it, and most were consoling themselves with the idea that at least they would get among them in the morning! At this point it might be prudent to enquire who tipped off a small Salmon school that it was one minute to four, because it was at this precise time they headed out to sea, and were never seen again!

The first of the early starters were head stirring at about 4 a.m. and by 5 a.m. the determined anglers were on the beach, hopefully throwing everything they had into the sea in a frenzied effort to catch on to one!

My condolences fellers, and doubly so to all those, who, like myself, remained fishless. To sum up a total catch of 62 lbs averaged for just over 1 lb per man and could possibly have broken a record for all time low.

DINNER AND TROPNY PRESENTATION.

Another year has passed, and our annual Dinner and Dance was a great success. Our thanks go to our capable organiser, Snow Tate. 120 members attended, including our visitors:-

Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley Watson, A.F.A. President, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frazer, Fisheries Department, Mr. and Mrs. Langdon, Marmion Club President, Mr. and Mrs. F. Sharpe, President Collie Angling Club, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Mackay, Museum. Commodore Brownell was unable to attend, owing to illness.

This year in the Trophy Presentation, two members who have not had the pleasure to walk up the Trophy Alter finished up having a bonanza. Congratulations Doug and Joe. Of course, like Father like Son congratulations go to Garry Strange for the Junior section. A special award was presented to Gordon Newton for his 28.1/2 lb. Mackrel, and as President Jack said, Gordon was lucky he wasn't pulled in in landing the beauty.

To Bill Bridger goes heartiest congratulations on the Sportsman of the Year Award from all Club ^{MEM}bers.

Henry Bester once again offered his services, and certainly displayed trophies to perfection. Many thanks Henry.

The entertainment was of interest to all members. The eight imps raced around so fast I noticed a few member's heads were turning in circles.

Many thanks to Arthur Horton for our lucky spots during the evening.

Unfortunately the clock always has first say, and twelve o'clock came far too quick, just when everybody was enjoying themselves. But not to worry, make sure you keep this Saturday night free for June 1968.

Now much has been written with infinite care,
Of the fisherman's feelings, his joys and despair,
But here are some thoughts you can bet your sweet life,
That will crop up at times in the mind of his wife.

For salt-water-widows the likes of myself,
In favour of fishing are left on the shelf;
At home with the kids and the Saturday roast
While the king of the castle goes down to the coast.

When going out fishing, arising at three
He'll bound out of bed with the greatest of glee.
On workdays, the din of the clock by his ear
Would awaken the dead, but he won't even hear!

Though he'll brave out the cold on the frostiest night
With spirits undaunted to wait for a bite,
If you mention a Drive-In, you'll only be told
"You must be insane dear, it's too flamin' cold!"

With never a murmur he'll spend half a day
Preparing his gear, getting set for the fray -
With loving attention to bail-arm and line
(Surprising how whale-oil smells so much like wine")

But show him the rake and a packet of seeds,
The garden bedraggled and smothered with weeds -
It's a pound to a penny, a buck to a dime
He'll tell you with horror he hasn't the time.

He'll stand on the ^{BEACH} beach, fishing hour after hour
With virtuous patience, through sunshine or shower;
But ask him to wait while they're setting your hair
And see how his language discolours the air!

Oh, he'll gladly put up with mosquitoes and flies,
With seaweed and sunburn and sand in his eyes;
He'll carry a burden, a pack horse would shun
For miles over sandhills in blistering sun.

But sweetly suggest that he walk to the shop
To pick up some stores - why the poor chap would drop!
Besides, there's a mate dropping in for a beer
And the tale of his latest excursion to hear.

Like a veteran soldier re-fighting a war
He will tell the same tale to a dozen or more,
His cronies all listening in avid delight
To his detailed account of the hazardous fight.

But girls, if at times he is rather a trial,
Come, muffle your yawns and put on a smile;
For you'll have to admit that it IS rather nice
To serve up those filletts so fresh from the ice.

And after a time you'll be able, I hope,
To turn a blind eye to the sard in the soap
The Scales that he's scattered all over your lawn,
The rip in his pants that a fish hook has torn.

When the bait that he left in the back of his jeans
Is floating around in your washing machine,
Don't reach for the hatchet and send for the hearse -
Remember, you promised "for better or worse".

And though it's annoying to find out too late
That he's shifted your ice-cream to freeze up his bait -
So long as there's fish in that salty old sea
To keep the brute happy - well, just let him be!

(STRANGE, but true.)
