WINDY WHITE HILLS: FEBRUARY FIELD DAY:

While the start looked promising our trip to White Hills could have been the middle of winter. Sounds as though the weather boys got pretty close to their forecast- strong winds (although more west than south) and showers (like who turned on the tap!)

After the usual sign on/let down tyres/discuss who is going where/we all trekked off at 2 o'clock. Had to manoeuvre through Northern Districts and Whitfords. They did not start out till later so Surcasters positioned themselves at all the prime spots (ahem). Place looked like St. George's Terrace 5 p.m. on Friday.

Analysis of the results will show that most people caught fish. Small schools of tailor came into most stretches of beach with most groups getting fish just before dark. Course some people like to relax have their break etc at this time then a mad scramble to get the lines in the water. Some people also like to burley up. Serves multiple purposes- attracts fish; drives away people downwind (that's right isn't it Brian?) and serves for breakfast for the dogs while Nell and Leigh sleep.

Interestingly enough while one small party didn't get fish in the evening nor at any other time our top gun Tony D'Alonzo collected his herring in the evening and got his bag of tailor in the morning. If you'd have seen the way the ocean was stirred up and the high westerly wind Tony certainly read the beach well to pick the correct hole.

Some of our Juniors made a pretty good show of outfishing the seniors. The Carr/Wintle and Korin boys have just started into fishing and look like being able to show their Dad's how to fish given a few more trips. Rosie Korin also looks like she is going to show Nell and Sharon how to catch fish give her a few more trips and she will be a hot tailor fisherwoman. Not mentioning any names of course but did hear of one vehicle that sported not only half a dozen fellas and only one girl but a pair of knickers that seem to have been subject of much speculation. Must have been more interesting than fishing. Maybe explains why someone left his fish on the beach and couldn't weigh in but his wife could. (Analyse the results and the answer is obvious).

Our field day officer sported a pair of shocking pink socks for the occasion. Explained it away by saying so he forgot his socks didn't like bare feet and waders so borrowed his daughters.

Leicester and Osborne and daughter were well into bacon and eggs for breakfast when people appeared at the weigh in had to fight the mob off to finish the meal. A relaxing way to finish the trip. Good hot coffee warm up in the sun discuss who caught what and weigh in. Despite the bad turn of weather most people caught fish and enjoyed the trip. P.D.O. (temp. assigned only)

FIELD DAY REPORT: GREENOUGH: JANUARY 1982:

I must begin this report with an apology to all members for the absence of results etc in previous "Reel Talks". I will endeavour to hand my reports to the Editor on time in the future.

Despite an early departure from Perth our group (Graham/Shane/Brett and self with son Gary) were close to last arriving at S-Bend owing to an overnight stop at Flat Rocks to catch "something-for-breakky". This proved to be a successful venture as most members enjoyed a sample of the delicacies we managed to procure.

After (or during) pitching camp DO was struck with a mysterious illness which rendered him R.S. until mid morning when the wog disappeared as quickly as he arrived.

When it came and went then it was time for the sign on where we were joined by a jovial band of anglers from the Geraldton Club who had previously challenged us to a mini inter club tourney. After settling the rules and conditions (took about 5 seconds) the Northerners rallied their forces and headed south while the Surfcasters did their usual stunt and stayed in camp for another 3 hours (boy! do we take these things seriously). Eventually most of us went fishing- or driving- depending on which group we were in. Most members went to a spot known to me as Dunkin's or something similar to that and that was where most of our fish came from for the weigh in on the Sunday.

Just for a change the weigh in started on time (probably because the Geraldton Club arranged it all). After about half-an-hour we had finished weighing the first bag which came from the Geraldton boys and suddenly the S.C.A.C. pride in its angling prowess took a nose dive. The aforementioned bag was only a sample of the next row and I don't know about our other members but I don't think I have ever seen bags like this before.

V. Walker - 28 Mulloway/4 tailor - 39.0kg

R. Morrow - 44 mulloway/3 tailor - 54.75kg

L. Parke - 19 mulloway - 29.0kg

Even whatsamadderv D'Alonzo wasn't going to help us through this dilemma although he did try. Best bags for S.C.A.C. were:

FIELD DAY REPORT: GREENOUGH: JANUARY 1982 CONT'D:

T. D'Alonzo - 4 snook/1 mulloway/6 herring/8 tailor	14.0kg
F. D'Alonzo - similiar species	6.5 kg
G. Holman - 4 malloway/6 tailor/ 6 snook	6.3 kg

The Juniors were a different proposition with the Osborne girls (especially Heather) and Heath Holman all getting a few fish. At the end of it all the Geraldton Club loaded all the trophies into a trailer which they had brought in anticipation of a clean up. Heather alone saved face for us all by winning the junior trophy. (if you blokes up in windy town are reading this it was terrific having your company. I'm sure our members would love to do it again. Thanks fellows- just for the record there was NOT ONE bloody mulloway in that spot on Sunday).

Monday's weigh in was if nothing else quicker than Sunday's with best bag coming from the old-new boy John Lee. Great to see you back John. Hope to see you at them all from now on. The ever reliable D'Alonzo put some more fish on the scales as did Steve Sutton; Peter & Heather Osborne; and Shane Smith. Other bags were weighed but were only just enough to keep members out of the "Also rans".

To those of you who left early stayed late or had airconditioned vehicles the trip home was "bloody hot" (124 in Eneabba).

Till next time
Tight lines

Tony
